The Literary Arts
Committee is sponsoring a READING JAM where the writers of American Samoa will step up to the mike and read stories, poems, or essays on a wide range of themes and topics using a myriad of styles and voices.

Join us and listen to the unique voices of American Samoa. They will make you laugh, think, cry, think more or even stir you to anger or action as they prepare all of us to host writers from across the Pacific region during the upcoming 10th Festival of Pacific Arts.
